HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Browster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

A bill authorizing the exchange for gold deposited for thirty days with the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer of the United States; said certificates to be received at par for bonds authorised by the bill, the sinking and special fund bonds to be cancelled, destroyed or deducted from the public debt, and an amount equivalent to the interest on said bonds be appropriated annually for the debt.

The internal revenue bill came up, attended by the adoption of Schenck's tariff bill, as additional sections, and then passed.

The Postoffice appropriation bill passed.

The Committee on Reconstruction resolved, as a rule, not to remove political disabilities from any person who has not petitioned therefor.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The Times' Washington special has a table, prepared at the Treasury Department, giving the list of the States which have secured less than their proportion of the National Bank circulation under the existing laws, together with the balance to which each is entitled according to the statement under the old law. California is entitled to $300,000, Utah $102,000 and Washington Territory to $32,000. The list of States entitled to an additional $25,000,000 of bank circulation by section 10 of the House bill, to be considered this week, includes Colorado, whose proportion is based on the last census, would be $116,000, Oregon nearly 60,000, Utah $40,000 and Washington Territory $14,000. It is intimated that the Treasury Department will now throw its influence for the bill, which also provides for uniform 4 per cent. bonds, and will oppose the new bill just finished by the Ways and Means Committee.

The municipal election on Monday is the absorbing sensation. Great precautions have been taken against riot. The police force has been increased and a battalion of marines are held in reserve during the day.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The civil expense appropriation bill was reported to-day. It appropriates nearly $12,000,000.

McCormick's bill for the survey of certain boundaries of Arizona, rendered necessary by Mormon encroachments upon the miners on the northern and eastern line, was also reported.

The Senate has confirmed Drake DeKay as Consul to Magdalen, Mexico.

The municipal election to-day resulted in the election of Emery for Mayor, by 3,000 majority.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Senate Committee on Public Lands reported adversely on the bill granting a portion of the Yosemite valley to Hutchings and Lamon.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, June 6.—A terrible tornado passed over a portion of Scott county, Illinois, on Saturday, destroying orchards and crops, blowing down trees and miles of fencing.

CINCINNATI, June 6.—The International Typographical Union to-day, elected for President, Wm. J. Hammond of New Orleans; Vice Presidents, Thomas Willard of Albany, N. Y., and John H. R. O'Donnell of Boston; Secretary and Treasurer, John Collins of Cincinnati; Recording and Corresponding Secretary, Miss Augusta Lewis of New York.

NASHVILLE, June 6.—Gov. Senter declares he will veto any bill which may pass the Legislature repudiating or declaring void any bonds legally issued to railroads.

NEW YORK, June 6.—War has been declared between the New York Central and Erie railroad companies. Erie tickets are not received on the Central. Negotiations are pending between the Erie and Pennsylvania roads for an alliance.

From Mexico.

HAVANA, June 6.—City of Mexico dates to June 1st have been received, and report the Guaymas revolution ended for the present.

Violent earthquakes have occurred in the State of Oaxaca, and in the city of that name, 103 persons were killed, and 53 wounded. One third of the city is uninhabitable. The earthquake extended to the mines where 11 persons were killed and many wounded. Buildings in all parts of the State are destroyed.

BY THE CABLES.

Great Conflagration in Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 4.—Yesterday afternoon a fire broke out which spread rapidly through the richest quarters of the city. The flames were first discovered in an old building on the north side of Golden Horn. A strong wind was blowing at the time. The fire communicated quickly to adjoining buildings. The efforts of the firemen and citizens to stop the progress of the flames were of no avail. In a few hours the residences of the English, American and Portuguese Ambassadors, and Consulates, the Naoum theatre, many churches and mosques, thousands of houses, and the richest store houses in the city are reduced to ashes. The loss of life by falling walls is fearful. The loss of property is incalculable. The fire at this hour is burning furiously, and the excitement of the people beggars description.

NEW YORK, June 6.—A special says that private dispatches from Constantinople says the massacre of the Jews in Roumania was from four to eight thousand. Other dispatches say that stories heretofore telegraphed are greatly exaggerated, and that the massacre did not exceed three thousand. Among the Jews in New York there is a manifest disposition to postpone action in the matter till more positive information is obtained.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 5.—The conflagration has been checked, though the flames still rage fiercely at some points. The loss is immense, the burned district being one of the wealthiest quarters of the city.

CALIFORNIA.

The Pacific Submarine Telegraph Company—Asking too Much.

[From the New York Herald.]

We have before us the copy of a bill which Congress is asked to pass "to incorporate the Pacific Submarine Telegraph Company and to facilitate telegraphic communication between America and Asia." The object of the bill is an ocean cable "from the shores of the State of California to Japan and the empire of China, either direct or by way of the Hawaiian (Sandwich) Islands, or other island or islands of the Pacific Ocean," &c. The bill proposes that the capital stock of said company shall be ten millions of dollars in gold, and that the Government, in order to facilitate the execution of the work, shall furnish one or more vessels of the navy to make surveys, &c., and shall contribute five hundred thousand dollars in gold per annum for a term of twenty years. In other words, the Government is asked to furnish the whole ten millions of capital stock, and the equivalent it is to receive is the privilege of sending despatches over the line to the extent of five hundred thousand dollars a year.

Now, it strikes us, first, that if we had a cable in operation between San Francisco and Shanghae and Yokohama, free to the government, it would hardly find any necessity for dispatches beyond five, eight, or ten thousand dollars a year. Secondly, that if the government is to furnish the whole capital stock of this concern it would be as well to make the cable a government affair at once, to be run by the government for the benefit of the people as cheaply as possible. Why not? Why should the government be called upon to turn over to a private corporation an ocean cable which is to be laid at the expense of the public treasury? The proposition is preposterous, and ten millions in gold for such a bargain makes the seven million and a quarter paid for the prodigious Arctic Territory of Alaska a magnificent stroke of good fortune. No. This cable project will never do. We dare say that if Congress, for the use of the wires, will agree to furnish a million of dollars to aid in completing a telegraph line from St. Petersburg eastward to the Behring Straits, with a branch line to Shanghae, the Czar will undertake to build the line, and this will bring it within forty miles of our own territory, and another million will bring it in connection with San Francisco. This line, then, with its branch line from Asiatic Russia Southward into China and Japan would be equivalent to a cable directly across the Pacific.

But against this scheme it will be urged that this line at all times would be under the control of Russia, and we want a line of our own. Very well. We can have it. There is the short sea route of the Aleutian islands, which are ours, and which stretch pretty well across the Northern Pacific, and from the extreme point of those islands, going west from Alaska, it is but a short distance to the Japan islands, and thence from Jeddo another short but of cable would connect with Shanghae. Here, however, the objection may be interposed that the chafing of the icebergs around the rocky shores of the Aleutian Islands render a cable by that chain of relay houses utterly impracticable; but this remains to be proved. Assuming, however, that the cheapest cable route from America to China and Japan is directly across the Pacific touching at some convenient islands en route, a half a million a year in gold from the Government for twenty years is simply out of the question. It is pretty certain, too, that for say twenty years to come the business of a Pacific cable would be limited to a few brief despatches from Shanghae and Japan on the prices of tea and the reports of the ships leaving and coming to those places. No private company, then, can undertake to risk even the tenth part of the cost of laying a cable between San Francisco and Shanghae; hence the company in question ask Congress to foot the whole bill. But if Congress must do this why not hold the line in possession of the Government? But, even in this view, will Congress at this time be apt to try this cable experiment? If not, we may as well dismiss the proposition at once as to say anything more about it.

The Georgia Affair.

[From the Chicago Republican.]

The Georgia investigation, about which so much has been said, ends in smoke. There is no evidence that Gov. Bullock used any improper means, or made any attempt to influence any Senator by any pecuniary consideration, and the committee's report is unanimous on that point. Failing in any proof of corruption, as to Senators, but apparently desirous of involving some one, the Committee spent most of their time in hunting over the books and private affairs of the newspapers that had advocated the side of Gov. Bullock. Among these was the Washington Chronicle, edited by John W. Forney—and the very unusual circumstance came to light that Gov. Bullock, with a desire to enlighten Congress, had procured the publication of certain articles, showing his side of the Georgia case, in that paper, and had liberally compensated the editor for his space and trouble. An astonishing discovery, truly! A circumstance so unprecedented and unusual, almost takes away the breath of a class of editors who daily sell the use of their columns for pay, and a class of Congressmen and politicians who are in the habit of hiring the manufacture of all the character and reputation they possess, at regularly stipulated rates. But then the editor who was compensated for the use of his press, editorials and labor was Mr. Forney, and because it was he, the transaction is a very serious indeed. Documents printed to lay before Congress at the expense of a private party are an evidence of corruption, and charging for the printing of them makes the printer a very venal sort of man. This is the great "cause" made out against Mr. John W. Forney by a Congressional Committee, and must be regarded as a very serious affair.

The Washington style of investigation has very original features. Somebody starts a rumor that some Congressman has been bribed and the honor of that body is at once seized with a spasm. An inquest is started, which finds there is no truth in the tattle, but that there is a chance to give some outside party a dig by prying into his private affairs on some other subject. Forthwith he is brought up to answer as to points nearly as weighty as whether he has paid his bootblack or washerwoman—how did he pay them? When? Where? Why let him have the money that he paid them with? In paying, did he use nickel or postal currency? Is he sure that he did pay? Is it not just possible he forgot to pay? Did he pay the tailor who mended his pants? What color were the pants? Has he any money in the bank? How much? When did he get it? Did he borrow it, and who from? Did he earn it by his labor? Didn't he charge high for the job? Could he not have charged a little less, just as easily? If he could have taken a little less, does not his conscience prick him for getting too much?

This is about the style of "investigation" that has been going on. It is made to cover about everything but the matter referred to the Committee, and, if any little scandal can be unearthed, or any supposed political capital be made to reward, the effort is a "report" about the size of the revised statutes of a State, is made up, and solemnly handed into Congress to perpetuate the memory of the great event, and the Committee, formally discharged from the further consideration of the subject, subsides and is heard of no more, until some new victim is selected out for sacrifice. These performances are getting quite too cheap and common.

"Dr. Mary Walker," says a Brenham (Texas) paper, "made her debut in the court-house to lecture upon her favorite theme, the equality of the sexes. Every one lady was in attendance. The speaker, after a few preliminary remarks, [illegible] predicting that, in the social and political development of the age, ladies in the South would soon think nothing of marrying negro men, and especially those who had been elevated to official positions—that at this part of the programme four fifths of the audience left in disgust. The door-keeper, too, having imbibed in 'too much "tangle-foot," was about this time non est inventus, and there was a general confusion worse confounded.'"

WEDNESDAY MORNING JUNE 8 1870

Our Election

The Democrats certainly have carried the Legislature and the chances are that they have elected their State ticket by a small majority. On Congressman the result is more doubtful and we think it possible that Wilson is elected.

The contest this year has been carried on by the Republicans in the face of great odds. In the last general election the State was 1 200 Democratic. All Republicans realized at the commencement and throughout every stage of the campaign that to overcome these odds a tremendous effort would be required. To carry the Legislature would be especially difficult for the reason that there were several very close counties and to lose any one of them would give the Legislature to the Democrats. Besides there were some of these counties in which it could hardly be expected that the Democrats would allow a fair election and the result seems to have verified that expectation. Nevertheless the Republican party has fought through the campaign with courage and hope, and though as it now appears it has failed,—but just barely failed—of success, it has no reason for discouragement. A fair election and one hundred votes more would certainly have given the Republicans the Legislature and their State ticket if defeated is defeated by a majority quite insignificant when compared with the Democratic majority in the last general election.

This election demonstrates that the Republican party is full of vitality and vigor and that it is gaining ground at a rate which will surely place it in the ascendant in this State in the next election. It is going forward on the rising tide and though it has not on this occasion accomplished what it was aiming at, it has come so very near it, and that too in the face of discouraging odds, that it can make another fight hopefully and with every prospect of success. A new era is coming upon Oregon. A large immigration is steadily setting in. Most of it is Republican and two years hence we shall be able to carry the State almost without an effort. An intelligent and active population, sufficient to out vote all the escapades who were driven here during the civil war is coming into the State. The changes that are taking place in our industrial condition the new era of life and activity upon which our State is entering, are causes which are certain to carry political changes with them. These changes are even now making themselves felt, and the Republican party now almost succeeds where it was hopelessly defeated two years ago.

The success of the Republican national administration, with the sure renomination of President Grant in whom the whole people have confidence will do much to still further strengthen the Republican party in this State before the next general election. We regard it as perfectly certain that we shall carry the State in 1872. The gains of this year indicate what the further operation of the forces now at work in our State, with the incoming immigration, will accomplish.

It has turned out as we surmised some time ago in regard to the management of the election in Wasco county. The Democrats had every judge and clerk of election in the county. They were predetermined to use their power, and did use it. First, they refused on the most trivial and unfounded pretexts to receive votes. Men were ruled out who had the most undoubted, lawful right to vote. No Republican was allowed to be inside where the votes were received, and after the polls were closed the canvassers deliberately threw out a large number of votes. This was the manner in which the 'election' was conducted. Persons who were at the Dalles on that day state that the Republicans would not have been allowed to carry the county if there had been two hundred more of them who were legally entitled to vote. They who "managed" the thing were resolved to succeed in their purposes at all hazards. We shall be much mistaken if a Congressman or a Senator "elected" by a fraud of this description will ever obtain the seats they covet.

The new constitution of Illinois, which is about to be submitted to a vote of the people, contains restrictions upon taxation and State and municipal expenses which are quite as stringent as the similar restrictions in the constitution of Oregon. The credit of Illinois, in case the constitution is adopted, cannot be pledged beyond the amount the amount of $250,000 without an express vote of the people to that effect except in cases of invasion or insurrection. The debts of counties, cities and towns are limited to five per cent. of the taxable property therein. The State is forbidden to pay assume or become responsible for the debts or liabilities of or in any manner give loan or extend its credit to, or in aid of any public or other corporation, association or individual. The same prohibition is extended to municipalities, but is to be the subject of a separate vote. Experience in Illinois has shown that restrictions of this sort are necessary to the public welfare.

A large number of the citizens of Portland were swindled out of the elective franchise on Monday by the action of Mr Hamilton Boyd, who obstinately refused to divide the city into a sufficient number of precincts to allow them to vote. Fully two hundred voters in North Portland precinct were unable to get near the polls. At seven o clock the polls were closed in the faces of one hundred and twenty persons, many of whom had been standing in line for five or six hours and they were obliged to go away without voting at all. Could all the legal voters have had opportunity to exercise the franchise the Republican majority in the county would be fully one hundered larger.

The dissensions among the Republicans in Washington county caused by Gaston's illegal railroad operations have cut down the Republican majority for the State ticket in that county considerably below the figures to which it otherwise would have reached. As a further consequence of the Gaston imposition and humbug the fusion county ticket is elected. The candidates on the regular Republican ticket did not sanction the railroad swindle but in the general muss that grew out of the affair a fusion ticket was nominated. The Sheriff elect and one of the Commissioners are Democrats. The balance are Republicans.

There was no disturbance whatever in this city on Monday when colored men approached the polls to vote. This first appearance of the colored man as an elector excited no more notice or comment than if there had been nothing unusual about it.

Clackamas County.

The Republican majority in this county is much below that first reported. A telegram from Oregon City last evening gives the following official majorities Wilson 67 Palmer 58 Hirsch Elkins and Kincaid 60 each Gibbs 5. County Republican ticket is elected except Treasurer. The Democratic candidate for that office is elected by ten majority.

Clatsop County

In Clatsop county Wilson has 61 majority, Palmer 56 Elkins, 58 Hirsch 58 Kincaid, 56, Gibbs 57. Olney, for Joint Representative, has 83 majority.

Columbia County

At Rainier Slater has 11 majority. The county is about 40 Democratic.

Douglas County

ROSEBURG, June 7 —Returns from 10 precincts in Douglas show a Democratic majority of one hundred. Three precincts are to hear from, which will give 50 Republican majority making 50 Democratic majority in the county. Not a Republican is elected on the county ticket. The election passed off quietly. No disturbance of any character reported.

Linn County

ALBANY, June 7 —Returns not all in yet. Will probably be to day. Democratic majority on State ticket about 250. County ticket will probably be all elected. Although much enthusiasm was expressed by both parties, everything passed off quiet at the polls. Weather very warm. (Other dispatches state that the actual majority in Linn is 219 —ED OREGONIAN.

Umatilla County.

The precincts heard from in Umatilla county give 63 Democratic majority. Four precincts are yet to hear from, which, it is claimed, will carry the Democratic majority up to 150.

Wasco County

This county is said to give a Democratic majority,—that is the canvassers who doctored up the poll books have made it so. Forty four votes were thrown out at the Dalles on the canvass in order to make sure of the "election" of the Democratic ticket.

Washington County

In Washington county Wilson has 135 and Palmer 140 majority. Balance of the Republican State ticket about the same majority. Gibbs' majority in the county is 86. Hare Republican, and Mills independent Republican, are elected to the Legislature.

Yamhill County

This county elects the whole Republican ticket by majorities ranging from 9 to 17.

The Result in Multnomah

Of course we expect the Herald to make all sorts of charges against the Republicans but to show in what complimentary (!) language it can speak of its own party, as well as to present to our readers its cry of anguish over the crushing defeat of its party in Multnomah county we give the following from its leading article of Tuesday.

The property holders of Portland have endorsed Ben Holladay's proposition to reduce the city to the condition of rat hole. The working men have endorsed Chinese immigration and Chinese suffrage. The Republican voters have ratified the sale of their party to a monopolist. Ben Holladay not only purchased the Republican masses, but he also purchased many men who have heretofore been Democrats. The men who sold out were not all of the classes known as floaters and bummers and roughs, but many of them have made claims to respectability, and called themselves patriots. These men can only be punished by their own consciences, and we leave them to reflection. When they behold the depth of misery into which the poor will be plunged when Chinese competition has reduced wages to slave rates—when they see the State of Oregon throttled by a grasping railway monopoly—when they see corruption holding a carnival at Salem and celebrating successes won by bribery with money wrung from an overtaxed people—when they see all these things and can trace the blame to them selves for their action yesterday it may be that they will feel a pang of remorse and rue the day when they sold their independence for a bribe and a promise. It has come to pass that the people of a powerful city have voted the minions of their sworn enemy into office and disposed of their inheritance for a bright piece of gold. If any better times are in the future appearances are deceitful.

Such a defeat after such a fight does hurt we know but then couldn't the Herald try to bear misfortune with more fortitude?

Gains and Losses

Following are the gains and losses of the two parties according to reports received as compared with the result of two years ago

Clatsop	31	Polk	30

Net Republican gain so far 892. Democratic majority two years ago 1 200

Washington Territory

Garfielde gains largely in all parts of the Territory. Democratic majority at Walla Walla is only 142, a Republican gain of 214 since last year. At the [illegible] Democratic majority is [illegible] which is also a Republican gain. A telegram received last evening from the Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee at Olympia states that Garfielde's majority in the Territory is estimated at fully 600.

Could we have had the assistance of a Democratic paper of the stamp of the Herald in every county we would have made a clean sweep. A paper of its kind in Southern Oregon to operate with it would have given us the State by one thousand majority. We thank the Herald for the assistance it has given us and can only regret that it did not circulate more extensively during the campaign in distant parts of the State.

OREGON

The Directors of the Merchants and Farmers Navigation Company [illegible] last week levied an assessment of forty per cent upon the capital stock of the company to meet the expenses that are being incurred in the purchase of machinery etc for the new steamer.

The North Pacific Transportation Company's steamer Idaho touched at Gardner on the 2d ult. Among her passengers was Mr Chas Vail of the firm of Young & Vail of Oakland who has been to San Francisco to purchase a stock of goods for their new store which is soon to be opened. Capt Hunn was also on board with a portion of the machinery for the M & F N Co's new steamer that is to be built immediately near Gardner.

Of the Humboldt railroad question the Jacksonville Sentinel says Senator Williams made this change at the earnest recommendations of the people of Southern Oregon and not at Holladay's bidding. It is true Mr Williams had the change made but it is utterly false that Senator Williams is a tool of Ben Holladay or any other man and it is untrue that he violated his pledges to build up a monopoly for the benefit of Holladay. He did it to prevent Pengra & Co from depriving Southern Oregon of a railroad.

The Roseburg Ensign says Intelligence reached Empire City on the 24th ult, that the schooner Dr Cilaston was burned at Cape Blanco on the 22d. She had touched at that point to discharge a cargo of brick, lime and other material for the construction of a lighthouse when she dragged ashore and is suppposed to have been set on fire by the lime on board. She was owned by A M Simpson, and was sold for $250. This is the third vessel lost by the same party since the first of February.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

OLYMPIA June 7 —The Territory has given a Republican majority of from 550 to 600. This county gave a Republican majority of 13[illegible]. Pierce county went Democratic by 27 majority. Nearly all counties show a Republican gain. The election passed off very quietly though much excitement was manifested.

SEATTLE June 7 —The following is the result of the election on the east side of the Sound. Whatcom county gives Garfielde 43 majority. Utsalady precinct in Island county gives Garfielde 23 majority. He will have a small majority in that county. Snohomish county gives Garfielde 75 majority. King county gives Garfielde 95 majority. Pierce county gives Mix 27 majority. Two precincts in Kitsap county give Garfielde 43 majority. All returns received up to this date indicate that Garfielde is elected by 500 majority.

CITY.

[illegible] The year 1870 has been [illegible] for Oregon [illegible] railroad and [illegible] to population. Thus far the accessions to population have been [illegible] any year since [illegible] the great [illegible] review [illegible] shown [illegible] were 1 420 against arrivals by steamer [illegible] 450 departures [illegible] the following [illegible] constant accelera[illegible]. It has increased during the two months of April and May and the indications are at present as favorable as at any time heretofore. During the last two months the number of passengers arriving by steamers was [illegible] number of departures during same period [illegible] making an increase [illegible] per year. In this at the rate of nearly [illegible] calculation we make no account of any persons except of the Caucasian race. Most of the arrivals are from the Northwestern States, through [illegible] Pennsylvania we have a [illegible] from the South and New England and a few from the Southern States. Thus far a large proportion of them are men of moderate means who have money enough to take care of themselves to buy homes and to start in business. A few are laborers who are dependent [illegible] employment to make a living while here are a few who have considerable [illegible] the aggregate already here [illegible] observation has extended so far as our [illegible] all of them belong to a class of men who are always [illegible] substantial and useful citizens just the class of men whom we want among us. With all due respect to the pioneers we say that the prospect for filling up our State with just the right kind of population was never better than just now [illegible]

ORO FINO THEATER. Mr Bates re opened this place of amusement last night with the beautiful drama of Madeline and the very pretty little comedy The Loan of a Lover, in which Mr and Mrs Bates Mr Vinson Misses Annie and Minnie Pixley Messrs [illegible] Thornton Clinton and others appeared constituting an effective company. Of those who have so often appeared before a Portland audience heretofore it can scarcely be necessary to say a word except that the ever popular actress Mrs Bates was received with hearty welcoming applause as were also Mr Bates and Mr Vinson. In the first piece, the Pixleys appeared in a role which we think must be new to them and [illegible] therefore, might be unjust or at least unfair. But in the interlude—the Pat McCann song and dance—they were charming and the audience recognizing the merit of the performance gave them a very decided encore. Miss Anna did her part also in the afterpiece with a good many touches of the [illegible]. She has the material for a good actress but she needs training. Altogether both the young ladies are rather pleasing and will doubtless prove an attraction. Mrs Bates always acts well, and last night Mr Bates was excellent as the drunken worthless bummer and rogue Remy. As a whole the audience had a very good entertainment. An excellent bill is offered for this evening.

THE RETURNS —The official election returns are not all in for this county. We have done considerable tramping around to find the judges and clerks of city precincts [illegible] many cases, anything like brilliant success. It would seem that we ought to have had the official count in all the city precincts at least but we can t count the votes officially without the assistance of one or two of the authorized chaps. As a general thing that class of our sturdy yeomen were hard to find yesterday—probably on account of the unreasonably fervent heat. We can readily excuse all of them who have vines and fig trees to sit under and sat under them but all the rest ought to have been found at the soda fountains and such. But never mind we ll have the official returns if it takes all summer.

NEW BOOKS —We have received from Bancroft & Co of San Francisco several new books, among which are "Under the Wheat"—a romance by a popular writer, name not published—published by Harper & Bros New York, "Miss Van Kortland a novel by the author of "My Daughter Elinor —bound in cloth, published by Harper & Bros. and "Robert Greathouse," an American novel by John Franklin Swift. The latter judging by the table of contents is a Pacific coast book, the scenes of the opening chapter being located in the silver mines of Nevada. We have not dived into the pages of the book, nor [illegible] tested the quality of the story but we [illegible] of some quiet humor in the aforesaid table of contents and we shall not be surprised to find the book readable and racy.

DISCOVERIES —An Hombre who signs his himself grandiloquently Prof R Leonidas Hamilton, M D has made some discoveries in liver lung and blood diseases whereat the double-ender titled gentleman is so tickled that he sends us, gratis a printed pamphlet containing the whole story and requesting us by implication, to send him our liver lungs and blood for inspection and experiment. Now we hate to tell but then we must that we can t spare em just now not even to be manipulated and sounded and stirred by so eminent a Professor and M D as the learned R Leonidas discoverer etc.

RED HOT. Talking about getting "red hot," the clerk of the weather has distanced Grasshopper Jim. Yesterday afternoon he bulled the thermometrical mercury up to 85 degrees in the shade of a three story block and manifested a strong disposition to send [illegible] up among the [illegible]. Thanks to the ice cream lunches and soda fountains those great bears of the mercurial market, our inhabitants were able to get through without being seriously [illegible]

SHOO FLY. Telegrams from various parts of the State were flying round the city yesterday to every direction to all sorts of people and containing all sorts of news. Upon a general average however they were unpleasant little billets—to Republicans—regular little gad-flies or to soften it as much as possible to the tender sensibilities of our friends we will say shoo flies.

FESTIVALS. The festive season of strawberries and cream is upon us in all its glory. There was a very pleasant festival occasion of this kind at the Baptist church last evening and another is advertised to come off at the Unitarian church on the [illegible]. The latter is to be an Apron Fair who ever the may be and Strawberry Festival.

[illegible] Number [illegible] May has [illegible] been laid upon our table. This guide book has already obtained such credit among travelers for useful and definite information on routes and rates etc. that no commendation of it can be necessary.

CITY.

OUR POPULATION.—The year 1870 has been to Oregon a sort of era—not only in regard to railroad and other internal improvements but as to population. Thus far the accessions to population have been unprecedented in any year since the great flood-tides of 1850 and 52. As was shown in our quarterly review of April 1st the arrivals by steamer alone were 1 429 against 861 departures—a gain of 568. At that date the following tide had but fairly begun to flow and it has increased with a constant acceleration—for the two months of April and May and all indications are at present as favorable as at any time heretofore. During the last two months the number of passengers arriving by steamer was 2,017, number of departures during the same period 437, making an increase of 1 575 or at the rate of nearly 10 000 per year. In this calculation we make no account of any persons arriving of the Caucasian race. Most of the arrivals are from the Northwestern States though we have a fair sprinkling from Ohio Pennsylvania and New England, and a few from the South. Thus far a large proportion of them are men of moderate means who have money enough to take care of themselves to buy homes and to start in business. A few are laborers who will depend upon gaining employment to make a beginning, while there are a few who have considerable wealth to add to the aggregate already here. So far as our observation has extended all of them belong to a class of men who are at all times and in all places good substantial and useful citizens—just the class of men whom we want among us. With all due respect to the pioneers we may say that the prospect for filling up our State with just the right kind of population was never better than just now in 1870.

ONE FIRE THEATER.—Mr Bates re opened this [illegible] last night with the beautiful [illegible] of Matilda, and the very pretty little comedy The Loves of a Lover—in which Mr and Mrs Bates, Mr Vinton, Misses Annie and Minnie [illegible], Messrs Melville Thornton, Clinton and [illegible] appeared, constituting an effective company. It would seem [illegible] to have had the official count in [illegible], at least but we can t count [illegible] without the assistance of one [illegible] authorized chaps. As a general [illegible] of our sturdy yeomen were hard [illegible] probably on account of the un[illegible] heat. Rotten Democracy

THE ELECTION YEAR IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK—THE REPEATERS HAVE IT ALL THEIR OWN WAY—[illegible] RAMPANT

[N Y (May 17) Dispatch to Cincinnati Commercial]

Never in the annals of New York chicanery was an election characterized by greater frauds than the one which took place to day. The city swarmed with repeaters who voted openly and with impunity in most of the districts the inspectors generally either being in league with the scoundrels or deeming it of no use to have them arrested.

In the First Ward a repeater attempted to vote on Judge Hogan s name in the Judge s presence and the policeman on duty in the booth refused to arrest him, although ordered to do so by the magistrate. Very little challenging was done and only three repeaters were arrested.

In the Fourth Ward nearly every Republican name was voted on by repeaters before the rightful voters arrived at the polls.

In the Eighth Ward two hundred and eight negroes had registered, and they assembled in their church and marched in a body to the polls, but found that one hundred and sixty of their names had already been voted on.

An old Irish woman tried to cast a ballot in the Fifth Ward, but it was rejected, much to her disgust.

A gang of 400 repeaters paraded the Eighteenth Ward and voted in nearly every district without let or hindrance.

Repeating in the Twenty first Ward was confined to Districts Nos 4 5 and 6. Here the inspectors made every one of them swear their votes in which they did without flinching but no one was arrested.

In one district only did the negroes dare to exercise the franchise, and there but eight of twenty seven mustered up sufficient courage to face the hangers on at the polls.

In the Second two of the strong minded women attempted to vote the Republican ticket, but were sent home disgusted.

In the Ninth Ward a colored man mistook his district and was arrested, but released.

In the Third District of this ward an old colored woman sought to deposit her vote for her husband who could not come himself. The negroes turned out strong in this ward and voted the straight Republican ticket.

A coal yard corner Eleventh street and University place, in the Eleventh Ward was the headquarters of a gang of forty repeaters, who repaired there after voting in one district changed their clothes and then went and voted in another.

The Seventeenth Ward was overrun with gangs of repeaters, but two members of which were arrested. This was the case all over the city, the election in every ward without exception being given up to the mercy of the repeaters and not more than thirty arrests being made all day.

Very few of the respectable citizens thought it worth while to waste their time in casting a vote which would not count and the greater number of those who did attempt it found that repeaters had been beforehand with them, and that they had their trouble for their pains. There never was a greater farce than the New York election of to-day.

[From the New York Evening Post]

At 9 o clock a respectable merchant offered his ballot in the Ninth Ward when the following took place.

Poll Clerk—This gentleman has voted once to day.

Voter—That is not so, I have not left my house.

Poll Clerk—The record states that you have voted.

Voter—I don t care for your record. I have not voted, and insist on my right as a citizen to have my ballot deposited in the boxes.

Inspector—We cannot go back on the record sir. It appears that you have voted once, and we cannot receive a second ballot from the same person.

The voter retired without further argument amid the bantering and derisive laughter of the repeaters, who were gathered in full force.

L F Mosher for State Senator

[From the Roseburg Ensign]

The Democratic voters of Douglas county are justly mortified and indignant at the attempt of L. F Mosher to force his odious person into an office against the will of the party. The situation of affairs was as well known at the time of the Democratic Convention as now, and why did not Mr Mosher present his claim at that time and permit the proper body to put him into nomination? For two reasons, the first of which was that he could not get the nomination for that or any other office by the voice of the authorized representatives of his party there assembled, hence he must secure it by trickery or not at all and second that he could not have been elected if he had been nominated at the time for it would have given the opposing party an opportunity to run a man against him which would have insured his defeat. The reason why no nomination was made for State Senator is that there is no vacancy in that office. B Herman was duly elected two years ago, and if any person had a right to question the legality of his election, or contest his right to his seat in the Senate it was J N Barker his opponent. The term is now half expired, and Mr Herman has occupied his seat in the Senate for one full session while a Democratic majority controlled that body and his right has not been questioned.

By reference to another column, it will be perceived that the Democrats of the northern portion of the county do not recognize the right of Mosher and his clique to nominate officers for the party to support and they look upon the action that has been taken as an outrage. It certainly cannot be looked upon in any other light than an attempt not only to secure a nomination against the will of his own party but to secure the office without an expression of the will of the people—it is an insult and a disgrace to the Democratic party and an outrage upon the voters of Douglas county. Mosher s nomination was postponed till he felt certain that no man could be put up against him, and one vote—his own—would be sufficient to give him the excuse he desires to claim the seat.

Jesse N Barker is an honorable man he went before the people as Mr Herman s opponent, secured a flattering vote and acquiesced in the result. He might have contested Mr Herman's right to his seat on the ground that Mr Mosher now claims to do so but he did not consider it tenable, or was too magnanimous to attempt it.

It is not probable that any other man could be found in the State, making any pretensions to respectability who would have stooped to the course that is being pursued by Mosher—it shows such a glaring disregard for the will of his own party as well as of the people in general. But this course of conduct will add to pass with the infamous eighth resolution of which Mr Mosher is a zealous advocate.

An additional lot of those handsome suits worn by everybody both heavy and light weight was received by Kohn & Fishel No 91 Front street. They are equal to the best custom made and pleasing to all and all that wear them. They also received an extra fine lot of striped calico shirts and Star white shirt. Their stock in clothing is the largest and finest in Oregon and sold at extreme low prices.

A Sad Story

DEATH OF THE ELDEST SON OF HENRY CLAY [illegible] INSANITY AND FINAL DEATH IN AN ASYLUM A MADMAN [illegible]

[From the Cincinnati Daily Enquirer]

[illegible] outside of Fayette County where the prophet was held in high but not in blameless repute being "in his own country," the name of Clay has ever been a sacred one in Kentucky and to name him has been to [illegible] lovingly. Wherever freedom found a votary that votary met in him a compatriot. When Greece, the classic land of Greece, the fountain of refinement, the birthplace of eloquence and liberty and of poetry, when Greece awoke from the long slumber of ages and beat back the faded crescent to its native East when Macedon recalled to mind the feats of her conquering boy and the Spartan struck in for the land that bred him, then the voice of Clay rolled over the waters of the blue Atlantic as a greeting from the New World to the Old. But hushed is that voice whose very tone was music, and so on till the [illegible] weaned. Such being the esteem in which the Sage of Ashland was held in the hearts of his countrymen the people of his Commonwealth have been slow to speak to strangers of the skeleton in his household, though in homes of the State the story has been a household word.

Yesterday morning our special telegrams announced the end of a weary life, in stating that Theodore, eldest son of Henry Clay had died in the Lexington Lunatic Asylum after a long confinement. The record of his blasted life is briefly this

At thirty years of age Theodore Clay was a promising lawyer. He was the image and the hope of the statesman whose fame was on every tongue. It is true that there were whispers of wild living, and of indifferent morals that somewhat tinged the fair repute and even darkened the future prospects of this scion of a noble house. Still it was hoped that these were but the result of youth and would be cast aside when circumstances called upon the man [illegible] to assert himself and make his talent felt in the community.

It was at this turning-point in his life that Theodore Clay began to pursue with an unwearied perseverance that caused his friends great uneasiness, a young lady of Lexington, whom he had long loved hopelessly. The object of his attachment, who is at present moment one of the brightest ornaments of Kentucky society, repulsed firmly but kindly, every attention offered by the infatuated young man after his meaning had become manifest. It was of no use he would not be refused and followed his fair fate in the streets by day and wandered in the neighborhood of her home by night, in an annoying manner, until at last it became evident that he "was not all there," to use the soft phrase by which a kindly peasantry express insanity. Subsequent violent demonstrations tended to confirm the impression, it being even related that he went to the house of Mr. —— and demanded his daughter at the pistol's point until at last the wretched truth could no longer be ignored and confinement in the Asylum became a stern necessity. This was accordingly done (in 1832, we believe) his father providing for his support at that time, and leaving $10,000 in his will, the income from which was secured to Theodore for life. That life after thirty-eight years of imprisonment in what in the early days of his confinement he was wont to call "a good boarding-house, but having some of the biggest fools he ever saw as boarders," has just closed. For nearly thirty years he was one of the most noted of its inmates not only his proud descent but his graceful manners and flow of conversation rendering him an object of interest to all visitors. He labored under the hallucination that he was George Washington and was fond of assuming the traditional attitudes of the Father of his Country. At the occasional balls given to the inmates (averaging some five hundred in number) he was always exquisitely dressed, in the style of his day and was the beau par excellence. During all these long years, despite his general gentleness and cheerfulness of manner, he was restless and discontented, and required close watching, it never, in fact, having been considered prudent to allow him to go out into the grounds without attendants. About the 1860 his condition began to grow worse, and he soon after became demented, continuing in hopeless idiocy until a few days since, when Death, great leveler than Time, placed him again upon an equality with the peers of his early manhood, who had gone before him to the God that created him and did with him according to His inscrutable will. And so ends as sad a story as the truth of the history ever commanded to be written.

Two sons of Henry Clay yet survive him, J. B. Clay ex-Minister to Honduras now residing on his place, "Mansfield," near Lexington, and John M. Clay the raiser of "Kentucky," and one of the greatest turfmen living.

Knocking Heads Against Stone Walls

[From the New York Times.]

It is very well known that the Democratic members of the House were thrown into a state of great tribulation by the passage of the bill for the enforcement of the Fifteenth Amendment, and that they took serious exception to the firm and somewhat summary method in which it was disposed of. We are not told that there was anything in the bill inconsistent with the letter or spirit of the amendment or with the policy of which it is the final embodiment. Indeed, these points do not seem to have been taken into consideration by the Democratic Representatives. It seems to us that the party betrays great short-sightedness in clinging thus obstinately to its ancient prejudices, and in allowing the negro to be its bete noir. It cannot, or will not, see that its policy is not only absolutely futile, but that it is calculated to injure the prospects of Democrats themselves all over the country. The present course of the party indicates an invincible hostility to the negro, which is at the very least indiscreet, seeing that he possesses power. It also reveals a spirit of dogged resistance to legislation already effected, and thus naturally causes apprehension of a future attempt to reverse this legislation. It is nothing but such an apprehension which has induced Congress to go much further in the way of restriction than it otherwise would have done, very many of its acts having been merely expedients of defense against possible Democratic assaults upon the central policy of Emancipation.

It is evident that our political opponents do not consider the decisions of the last ten years as final, or else why do they not conform to them? They certainly cannot hope perhaps many of them do not desire, to re-establish slavery, neither can they hope successfully to resist the Fifteenth Amendment, although we know that they openly threatened to make that an issue in the next national canvass. The idea of depriving eight hundred thousand blacks of the ballot after they have once obtained it, and while they are defended by a great party, ought not to delude the least intelligent observer of current events. Democratic managers who have had a large and varied experience in the manipulation of votes ought better to appreciate the power of such a large constituency. The fact is that the negro with the ballot in his hands is able to protect himself and the anticipation of that fact was what induced Congress to give him the ballot.

Sooner or later, the Democratic leaders will discover that eight hundred thousand voters scattered through all the States, will wield the balance of power. In arraying their party in pronounced hostility to the negro they only get out of their way to insure its defeat for years to come. Quite a generation must pass away before Democracy can overcome its anti-negro traditions and feelings, or before the black man will consent to forgive or forget its determined antagonism to his interests. The longer the party clings to its present purblind ideas the longer its hope of emerging from political exile will be postponed, and it is extraordinary that the leaders do not recognize a fact which is palpable to every man who can take an independent view of public questions.

The receipts of bullion were large and the Mint operations very satisfactory. The deposits were 110 426 83 ounces gold and 14 4 0 20 ounces silver. The proportion of deposits were as follows

	Ozs	Per Oz	Value
Refined gold	73 841 55	$20 50	$1 513 751

Total	110 426 83	$19 50	$2 153 9[illegible] 17

The operations for four months as compared with the same period last year in gold were as follows

	1869 Deposits, Ozs	1869 Coinage	1870 Deposits, Ozs	1870 Coinage
January	9,096	$ 405 000	54 260 00	$1 768,254 30

Total	[illegible] 950,183	$3 775 000	404 951 15	$8 067 900 00

Thus the deposits exceed those of last year 26 000 ozs for the month and 154 800 ozs for the five months. The coinage is $4,292,900 greater than last year.

The amount coined at the Mint, as reported through the officers, has been $2 040 000 in double eagles, $ 000 gold dollars; $30,000 silver halves; total $2,083,000. This does not quite equal the deposits by about 10 000 ozs refractory and dirty came in on the 31st. The coinage in May last year was $935 000—increase $1 065 000. A supply of $4,721 859 41 gold bullion for May $2 153 901 1 was sent to the Mint for coin, and there was exported $585,536 81. There has been an excess of $941 000 over the demand for it against an excess of $57 190 11 in April. This is very encouraging marking the accumulation of money.

The exports of treasure, as compared with the same period last year are as follows. The exports East per railroad were gold coin, with the exception of $14 000 silver bars. The China movement was $301 178 58, against $1,120,052 38 corresponding steamer last year. There were many shippers and mostly to clear treasure on hand. Of the shipment $110 000 was gold coin and $144 000 silver bars etc. etc.

In the local merchandise market there is something less than the usual activity. Yesterday being election day, of course all business was mainly in a state of suspension. To-day however there are some indications favorable to jobbers though it can hardly be expected that trade will be fully resumed under a week at the shortest.

In the produce market we have nothing new to offer. Though prices are generally maintained the market is generally inactive. The steamer now in port will take a full cargo of flour provisions and miscellaneous produce.

The Alta, of June 21 has the following in regard to the grain market:

"The new Wheat crop is now near at hand, and in some localities harvesting has commenced. Last year some Wheat was marketed at this date, from the San Joaquin and all that region supplied the earliest shipping. In fact, but for the new land there planted the shipping business of July and August would have been but meagre. This year the crops in that region are far from good. At this date last year, new Barley was received from Moore's Landing and sold at $1 12½. It may be worth while to refer to our remarks of this day one year since:

"The extent of the Wheat crop now coming on the market is a matter of interest, and the reports as usual at this season are contradictory. There is no doubt that at one time, while the early-sown grain has every where [illegible] in appearance, the late sown crops were in great jeopardy for want of rain. The May rain fall, however wonderfully revived the drooping plant and revived the hopes of many planters. Unfortunately, those light rains were speedily followed by northers, which took the heart out of large tracts of Wheat, and left it in a condition not worth harvesting. By comparing [illegible] different sections, however, we think, taking into consideration the greater breadth of land planted, [illegible] of the early sowing and the restorative effects of the late rains, including the volunteer, that the whole quantity harvested will much exceed the last, or that now being closed out."

These remarks were fully justified in the event, for receipts have been actually larger and it is estimated that we go into the new crop with 300,000 sacks of old, an unusually large quantity. The extract is chiefly remarkable as showing that very nearly the same state of things was reported then as now. The remarks would apply very nearly to the present state of the crops and we [illegible]. The Liverpool price was then a little less than now. It was 9s 3d and freights £2 7s 6d, at which the Regent was chartered for Liverpool. Now the Liverpool rate is 9s 11d, but freights are nominal. The state of affairs as reported, in France is likely to give strength to the English market, but that must depend upon the weather in the next ninety-six days."

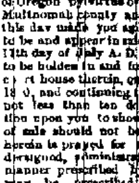
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL,

San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years' standing, and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases a especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest [illegible] cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each person a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use (for Ten Dollars) and a registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus worn certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 251.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 251 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
